

	Literacy	Art/DT	History	History	Other
Entry Point Day	Listen to some medieval music (you tube has plenty) or https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PCq-hEOKorI Learn some Tudor dances - Gavotte and Pavane eg, www.bbc.co.uk/education/clips/zt4kjxs
			Chronological and Political changes	Social, religious, cultural, technological changes
Wk 1	Non-fiction Discussion Persuasion Explanation Information Newspapers Letters Diaries Biography		The struggle for power - wars of the roses - Lancaster vs York. The founding of the Tudor Dynasty by Henry VII	Meanwhile, what was life like for the everyday people of 1400 Britain? Learn about the call to arms to be an army for your local Lord - which decided if you were fighting for York or Lancaster. Tudor weapons and battle strategies.	Geography Counties of UK Cities Rivers and mountainous areas
Wk 2		Art Make a Tudor Rose print - three overlays, building up layers of colours.	Henry VIII - wives and his need for a son. Consequences of this: Religion/ Reformation - torture?	Everyday life: Homes - rich vs poor Leisure
Wk 3 (4 days)				Everyday life: Religion/customs Food - rich vs poor	Science: Growing crops to feed yourselves and your family. Sow a range of seeds to grow into crops to make pottage and bread from in the future. Revise how to keep them alive.
Wk 4			Turbulent times - Edward VI, Mary I	Everyday life: Tudor jobs - rich vs poor
Wk 5			Elizabeth I - the return of the 'Golden Age' Wars with Spain/Armada	Tudor exploration - where did they go and what did they discover? Life as a sailor.	Geography: Compare and contrast Tudor maps with modern maps
Wk 6		DT: Imagine we have a fine crop of veg to eat from our seeds. Plan a recipe for Pottage and/or bread. Prepare ingredients, cook it and eat it.		Walter Rayleigh Francis Drake and the Privateers	Geography: Trade in Tudor times - facts and ethics. Compare with Trade today between the same countries. British Values What does it mean to a part of the EU
Exit point	Answer questions with evidence Tudor day - staff and chn dress up and have a day of Tudor activities - eat Tudor food, do Tudor jobs, visit an execution of a traitor, fight a battle etc. A culmination of everything they've learnt.

